Description

God bless the band! Courteeners are heading to the M&S Bank Arena Liverpool on Friday 13th November 2026 as part of a massive nationwide tour celebrating their phenomenal 20-year career. Plus, they will be joined by special guests The Lathums as well as The Guestlist who will be opening the show!

Since releasing their debut St. Jude in 2008, Courteeners have become one of the biggest bands in Britain. Their live shows are legendary communal experiences, bringing tens of thousands of fans together for massive celebrations. This newly announced show follows the release of their brand-new single, "The Luckiest Man Alive," which is available to stream now.

Courteeners are proud to support the LIVE Trust, a new initiative providing financial aid to the grassroots music ecosystem, including venues, artists, and promoters. £1 (+ VAT) from every ticket sold for this show will be donated to the Trust to help protect and support the future of UK music.
